2014 Profile Form

The Hoyt Family has been hosting guests for more than 100 years, with 4th and 5th generation family members actively overseeing day-to-day business. Homemade meals, comfortable lodging and a wide range of activities give guests reasons to return year after year.

Purity Spring Resort is nestled in a valley, not far from the grandeur of Mt. Washington and the White Mountains National Forest. The resort encompasses 1000 private acres accented by Purity Lake and our very own ski area.

Friendly staff has become a long standing part of the family tradition at Purity Spring Resort. More than two-thirds of resort guests return year after year which could have something to do with our outstanding hospitality. In a world filled with uncertainty, it's nice to know that some things remain steadfast.

Purity Spring Resort's lakefront location and natural setting offers guests boundless recreational opportunities 12 months of the year!
